PREFACE

Dear Young Friends,

We place before you a series of books on "The World Around Us—Step by Step". The Sub Title of the series will interest you, for our aim is to help you to answer yourselves your usual questions—'What ? When ? Where ? How ? and Why' ?

There is so much to learn about ourselves—our past and our present, about plant and animal life, about things we do and use, about strange phenomena of science and its inventions and about man's efforts to make his life comfortable.

Most of you love to read books according to your age-group and interest. Our aim is to just awaken your interest and arouse your curiosity so that you build a life-long habit to keep your five senses awake.

This series of books does not make a dictionary or an encyclopaedia or a book of knowledge. We are only taking you to various fields in an informal manner. We will help you to walk with celebrities of the past and the present; we shall take you to the agricultural fields and to the industrial plants; you will converse with plants, animals and insects; you will be on the sports ground; you will walk through the corridors of ancient monuments and modern skyscrapers; you will be at the post office, at the railway station, at the airport, in the hospital, in the bank, in the research laboratories, on the dams, in the Parliament House, in fact everywhere. We may not be able to cover details of all fields but will certainly give you a 'touch and go' feeling.

The study is systematic, step by step, from the known to the unknown, from the particular to the general. We do not jump from one field to another haphazardly. Our approach is topical, with short introductions to arouse your interest in a particular field. We may come back to the same field again in the higher ladder to provide you more knowledge in that particular field. It is only at a later stage that you will have 'Mixed Bags' for quicker thinking and quicker response.

You will notice that the series has innumerable illustrations because we strongly believe that in such books pictures should do most of the work. The series is intended to be an exhibition of the wonderful show that the World has in store for you.

We hope you will be earnest in your approach and take it easy, in a non-formal and playful manner. You should be able to answer about fifty per cent of the questions on your own; for another twenty-five per cent you have to make some effort; and for the rest twenty-five per cent you may have to run about, seek information from your parents and teachers or look up reference books in the library. Sincere efforts will pay a good dividend. There will be no fun indeed, if you could straight-away answer all questions.

—Authors

Preface to the Revised Edition

It is a matter of great satisfaction that this series has been very well received by teachers and students alike. This series originally consisted of six Ladders: Ladder 1 was intended for Class III, Ladder 2 for Class IV and so on with Ladder 6 meant for Class VIII. There has been a persistent demand that two more ladders for Classes I and II may also be added to the series. Complying with this demand, two more ladders have been added. Now there are eight ladders; Ladder 1 is intended for Class I, Ladder 2 for class II and so on with Ladder 8 for Class VIII. With the renumbering of ladders, there might be some initial difficulty for which we seek forgiveness, but in the long run, the numbering now done will prove useful.

All the six ladders of the original series have been thoroughly revised, some difficult questions have been removed or shifted to higher ladders. Answers have also been provided. We hope the present series will prove more useful.

VISIT TO A PARK

A. BIRD LIFE

(On a spring morning you can hear the chirping of birds, as they hop from one branch to another on the trees in a garden.

Some of them have most colourful plumage. They have varying powers of flight. Some migrate from cold countries to warm countries during winter, covering thousands of kilometres every year. The nests made by the birds and the eggs laid by them are REAL works of art.)

Below are given sketches of ten birds; most of them you must have seen. Check your knowledge and fill in the blanks :

A stylized illustration of a white bird, possibly a frigatebird, with a long, pointed orange beak. The bird is perched on a yellow cylindrical can. The can has a white circle in the center with the number '10' inside. There are some dark, scribbled lines on the can, suggesting a label or a mark. The background is a solid light orange color.

[illegible]

B. WORLD OF FLOWERS

(Flowers have a special place in the world of plants.

Watch the flowering plants in any garden, swaying to and fro with gentle breeze.

These flowers have a large variety in shape; they have bright colours; and some of them have very sweet fragrance.

Wild flowers grow in jungles and on mountains. Man has improved on nature and cultivated plants with bigger, brighter and more colourful flowers than exist in natural wild growth.

You may be having a garden in your home. But why not own a few flower-pots exclusively for yourself. Look after the growing plants and watch buds blossoming forth into flowers. It will be your 'WORLD OF FLOWERS.')

Below are given drawings of a few common flowers. Check up your knowledge about their names and fill in the blanks.
